

Green Capsule

---

COMMENTS

---

published by The Optimist Club of York-Toronto, Ont., Inc.

Vol. 15, No. 1, December 1974 25¢ per copy

Time for the Corps' Awards:
At the Cadets Awards Presentations...
Bob Moore of the Contra section accepts the

: Pat Tunney, the 1974 Cadet "Rookie
: Of The Year, accepts the trophy from:
: Mr. Vic Decloux.

Victor Decloux receives the Cadet
"Bugler-Of-The-Year" from bugle
: instructor Paul Ranson.

Top to Bottom, Left to Right: Lynda Baillie, Cadet of-the-Year. Bob Moore, Section-of-the-Year. George Price, Drummer-of-the-Year. Victor Decloux, Bugler-of-the-Year and Pat Turney, Rookie-of-the-Year.

CADET DRUM MAJOR NUMBER ONE

Miss Lynda Baillie, the attractive drum major for the Optimist Cadets won the James McCaffrey Award, The Cadet's 'Trophy of the Year' for 1974.

The Cadets played this important indoor uniformed event without instruments on Sunday afternoon, November 10th at the K of C Hall in Scarborough. They were greeted by a solid front of Instructors, Executive and Guests seated at the head table at the head of the hall. This included many of the past Directors of the Corps, the Presidents of their Booster Club and their sponsor, the Optimist Club of York-Toronto, the Knights of Columbus and Executive from the Junior

continued on page -10-

Left: Mrs. McCaffrey presents The Cadet-Of-The-Year Award to Lynda Baillie. Bottom: Greg Tieney introduces his slides... Club President Joe Gianna and Director Ted Baker speak to the Cadets. (D. Daber photos)

